Mrs. Beaver got up early for the winter holiday. She wanted to make a special treat.

She mixed some flour, sugar, and water in a bowl.

She added oil, eggs, milk,
and butter.

She rolled the dough
into a big ball.

She cooked the dough in hot oil to make bread.

She put the bread on a rock outside to cool.

Mr. Beaver was busy chewing on a nearby tree.

The tree fell onto the bread with a loud crash!

“Oh, no!” cried Mrs. Beaver.
“The bread is as flat as my tail!”

“Now who will want to eat it?”
she asked.
